APM 05/25 Questions from the Public:

- A parishioner reported a landowner clearing up area in their land that may have a badger set. The chair explained that if this was the case then this would be an offence however they do need to report to the police. There was much discussion about this involving many parishioners.
- Sale of the Crowne – the vendors need to sort out the deeds as the premises needed a change from business to residential.
- Beach quad bikes have been reported around Haven end of the breach to be creating lots of mess along the dunes and deep tyres tracks. The parishioner was advised to take photos and report to the police using 111 number. If the bikers where actually there when the parishioner was there then to call 999 immediately to report the crime.
- Flood protection – sea defences
